

Animal Services Support

Part-Time

Department

East Ridge Animal Services

Summarized Description

East Ridge Animal Services is committed to providing the highest quality care to shelter animals. The Animal Support services staff help to ensure that goal is carried out. The employee in this position is to perform supportive work functions associated with animal control services, animal shelter operations, and customer service. This individual helps to provide a clean, safe, humane, and comfortable stay for all animals while at the shelter. All duties are carried out according to established procedures for the maximum wellbeing of the animals.

Work is carried out in the animal shelter where employees are exposed to animals that have various health and behavior conditions. The environment can be moderately to highly noisy, and there may be some exposure to animal-related allergens and health considerations.
