I. Call to Order

Vice - Chairman Catlett called the meeting to order at 4:00 P.M.

II. Roll Call:

Present: S. Catlett, D. Hill, G. Houk, T. Humble, C. Ogle
Absent: G. Haggard, C. Young

III. Consideration of minutes from previous meeting.

Todd Humble made a motion to accept the previous meeting minutes. Greg Houk seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

IV. Consideration of a special event / on premise permit for Appalachian renaissance faire of Tennessee. Located at 722 E Dumplin valley road, kodak, TN 37764 for the dates November 8-9, 2025.

Event coordinator Catherine ... was present, explained to the board that their event is hoping Sevier County will be their new home for the faire after being in Greenville for the past few years. Explain they are requesting to set up a beer garden at the event that will serve beer, mead, and cider. The beer garden will be an enclosed space that you will only be able to enter and exit at one opening, tickets would be sold at a booth that will verify age and collect the fees, and you can use the ticket to get the customers beverage of choice at a different booth.

Greg Houk asked what kind of event is this?

Catherine stated that this is a family friendly event that is help across the Appalachian region, that allows patrons to come dressed in medieval attire or to explore the fun.

Chad Ogle asked how many people are expected at this event?

Catherine explained that the event they host is on the smaller side compared to others in the region but it is estimated that up to five thousand (5,000) visitors will be at this event. Chad Ogle told Catherine that many of the wedding venues that serve bigger weddings and serve alcohol at those events generally have a security officer at these events. It is under his recommendation that she reach out to the sheriff office, and get a couple of officers for this event to make sure everything goes smoothly.

Greg Houk made a motion to accept the Consideration of Special Event Permit. Dale Hill seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.
