Commissioner Woods called the meeting to order at 4:08 PM.

Mayor Waters presented Resolution 2025-08-XX: Attorney General Fee. Mayor Waters informed the Committee this request came from District Attorney General Jimmy Dunn. General Dunn has presented and passed in Cocke and Jefferson County, Grainger County will be presented later this month. General Dunn assured the Committee the funds collected in Sevier County would stay and be used in Sevier County. Commissioner Cole made a motion to accept the Resolution and send to Board of Commissioners for approval, contingent on an agreement with the District Attorney's Office that the funds the County uses for the Public Defenders Office come out of the funds collected by the passing of the Resolution. Commissioner Whaley seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Vice-Mayor McCarter and Human Resources Generalist Vandergriff presented to the Committee a memo for TCRS Service Gap Procedures. Commissioner Delius made a motion to accept. Commissioner Chambers seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Commissioner Cole made a motion to adjourn. Commissioner Whaley seconded the motion. The meeting adjourned at 4:38 PM.
